Kenneth David Crooks was born October 26, 1926, in Lafleche, Saskatchewan. On March 23, 1949, he married his soulmate Mary Cunningham of Mazenod, Saskatchewan. Ken rented three-quarter sections of land and they moved into an old house. Ken was a lifetime farmer, however, during his midyears, to supplement the farm income, he was a grain buyer, and worked for Saskatchewan Crop Insurance. Ken acquired his pilot's license in April 1975 along with his son Larry and in his later years enjoyed working on old engines, making wall-mounted clocks, doing puzzles, bowling and fishing. Ken and Mary made many fond memories traveling to Norway, Hawaii, Southern California, Port of Churchill, Mexico and Expo 86 in British Columbia. In the fall of 2011, Ken and Mary retired from the farm to Lafleche and in April 2019, needing a little extra care moved to Prairie Villa in Assiniboia. Sadly, Ken passed away on August 16, 2021 at the Regina General Hospital at the age of 94 years. Ken leaves to mourn his wife of 72 years Mary Crooks, sons Allan Crooks, Larry (Verlyn) Crooks, Kevin Crooks, Leslie (Shelly) Crooks, Darrell Crooks, Marty (Cheryl) Crooks, daughter Heather Crooks, his grandchildren, and great-grandchildren; sister June Sanders. Predeceased by his son Nelson Crooks; daughter-in-law Sandra Crooks (nee Peters); parents Frank and Mary (nee McHugh) Crooks; brothers Francis Crooks, George Crooks and sister Vera McRae.
