

You can shed tears because they are gone,
 or you can smile because they lived.
 You can close your eyes and pray they will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that they left for you.
 Your heart can be empty because you can't see them,
 or you can be full of the love you shared.
 You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
 or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
 You can remember only that they are gone, or you can cherish their memory and let it live on.
 You can cry and close your mind and feel empty,
 or you can do what they would want.
 Smile, open your heart, love... and go on.

In Loving Memory

Pierre Adelard Gauthier
 1966 - 2019

Throughout the years, Pierre had many hobbies and participated in numerous activities. He enjoyed farming with his dad, wood working and watching movies. He enjoyed curling, playing recreational hockey (with the Canucks and the Sharks), golfing and fishing. He spent hours listening to music, talking on the phone, trying out new recipes and checking out the latest on Facebook. An early morning phone call to his mom was a must. If you were looking for Pierre, you could probably find him riding his quad or enjoying time at the shack. On his quad - this was his ultimate happy place.

Pierre always inquired about others, as he was genuinely interested in their lives and their well being. He loved going for rides with loved ones, giving him an opportunity to visit. He was a natural with kids, often making jokes, playing tricks and cheering them on at their various sporting events. He absolutely loved animals; he was always ready to give them treats, pets and love, anything to see a wagging tail. He was always ready to lend a hand, whether it be coaching hockey, helping with yard work, making sausage, and everything in between. Most of all, Pierre enjoyed spending quality time with his family and friends.

Pierre had a generous heart. His smile will be missed by all.

Pierre is survived by his family: parents Charles and H el ene (n ee Lafrance), brother Marcel (Francine), niece Sylvie (Jesse) and nephew Julien.
