The Plumber's Poem by Pat Fitzpatrick

The van is humped up, with its back to the wind
Motor purring softly
Waiting for Emile to come out of the well.
Gad! But it's cold! It'd make a polar bear weep!
Finally he appears
Red-eyed and whiskered from lack of sleep.
Got er fixed. Yer cattle are drinkin'.
Stop at the house
For lunch and a drink.
Can't! ___ wish this weather'd break
Got a couple walloons, with frozen lagoons.
We have to keep our priorities straight,
The old lady with the toaster can wait.
We hafta keep these cattle on feed.
It doesn't matter if it's 40 below,
It's never too cold for Emile and Joe!

"Wherever you go, I shall go, wherever you live, so shall I live, your people, will be my people, and your God will be my God too." Ruth 1:16
