Linda Jamieson

Linda was born in Weyburn, SK. on June 14, 1951 to Clem Cugnet and Christine Cugnet (nee Taylor) and was the youngest of 4 siblings. She completed her education in Weyburn and after high school graduation, she moved to Saskatoon where she met her soulmate Craig on September 16, 1971. On September 9, 1973 Craig proposed and they were married on May 18, 1974, in Weyburn, SK. After the wedding, they continued to live in Saskatoon. On August 9, 1976 Craig and Linda welcomed their first son, Bradley Douglas Jamieson and 23 months later, on July 1, 1978, they welcomed their second son Aron Jeffrey Jamieson. In early 1979, Craig and Linda moved to Gravelbourg, SK., and later that same year, on November 29, they completed their family with the arrival of Cristy Lynn Jamieson. Linda was a proud mother and never missed an opportunity to watch her children participate in their various sports and activities and later in life she never missed an opportunity to talk (brag) about her children, their accomplishments and their families. In the community, Linda is most well known for her art. Many residents have a painting of Linda's in their house. Linda loved. She loved Craig with all her heart, she loved her 3 children more than they will ever truly realize and Linda's love for her 8 grandchildren was unmatched. They all loved her so much and she loved them 10 times that in return. Linda leaves to mourn, her soulmate Craig, her son Brad, his wife Crystal and her grandchildren Abigail, Oliver, Isabella and Andrew, who affectionately referred to Linda as Grammy; her son Aron, his wife Crystal and her grandchildren Micah, Mateo and Zane and her daughter Cristy, her partner Nick and her grandson Sam.
