The Farmer's Creed

Man's greatest possession is his dignity, no calling bestows this more abundantly than farming.

Hard work and honest sweat are the building blocks of a person's character.

Despite its hardships and disappointments, farming is the most honorable way a man can spend his days on this earth.

Farming nurtures the close family ties that make life rich in ways money cannot buy.

*Farming provides education for life,
 and no other occupation teaches so much about birth,
 growth, and maturity in such a variety of ways.*

Many of the best things in life are indeed free, the splendor of a sunrise, the rapture of the wide-open spaces, the exhilarating sight of your land greening each spring.

*True happiness comes from watching your crops ripen in the field;
 your whole family feels the pride that springs from their shared experience.*

By my toil I am giving more to the world than I am taking from it, an honor that does not come to all men.

My life will be measured ultimately by what I have done for my fellow man, and by his standard I fear no judgment.

When a man grows old and sums up his days, he should be able to stand tall and feel pride in the life he's lived.

I believe in farming because it makes all this possible.

In Loving Memory

"To each is given a block of stone, a book of rules and a bag of tools, and each must make ere life is flown, a stumbling block or a stepping stone."
